

HOW DO I GET ACCESS TO MY COURSE MATERIALS?

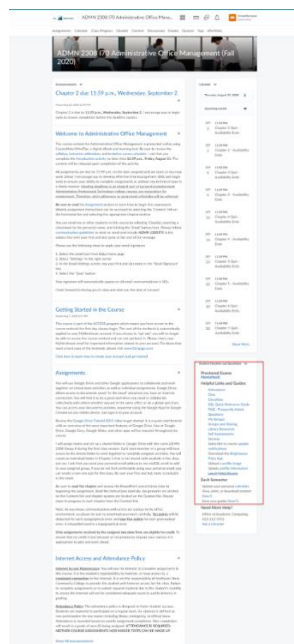

Looking at the Fall 2022 Follett Access Course List. If the course you are taking or teaching is NOT highlighted, there should be a link under Content in D2L with access to your course materials.

Follow the instructions below if the course you are taking or teaching is highlighted yellow or blue.

If the course you are taking or teaching is IS highlighted yellow follow the steps below to gain access to either the access code you will need or the digital textbook. There are screenshots to help know where you are in the process

1. Login to D2L
2. Click on your course
3. Under Helpful Links and Guides, Click on “Launch Follett Discover”
4. Make sure you are set to the current term.
5. Click on the material being used.
6. You will then see a green “Start Reading” button to access the eText.

Step 6:

The screenshot displays the BryteNave website interface. On the left, the 'My Shelf' section shows a list of materials under the heading 'Your Materials'. Three items are visible: a book titled 'Culture and Values: A Survey of the Humanities...', a courseware item titled 'MyLab IT with Pearson eText -- Access Card - for...', and a book titled 'The Enduring Vision, Volume II: Since 1903'. Each item has a small thumbnail image and a 'Details' link. On the right, a 'Product Details' sidebar is open, showing the Pearson MyLab & Mastering logo. Below the logo, it identifies the product as 'MyLab IT with Pearson eText -- Access Card - for Skills for Success with Office 365, 2019 Edition' by Margo Chaney Adkins / Stephanie Murre Wolf / Stephanie Murre Wolf. A section for the 'PUBLISHER ACCESS CODE' contains a text box with the placeholder 'Access Code will be here' and a 'COPY CODE TO CLIPBOARD' button. Further down, the 'PRODUCT DESCRIPTION' and 'PRODUCT INFORMATION' (including ISBNs and edition) are listed. At the bottom left of the main interface, there are links for 'Terms of Use', 'Support', 'Refund Policy', 'Privacy Notice', and 'Accessibility'.

Then copy and paste the code into the Pearson site. Your access code will be a longer 26 digit access code.
